

Our struggles can become a sacred space for God to strengthen us.

Isaiah 40:30-31: "Even youths grow tired and weary, and young men stumble and fall; but those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles, they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint."

I. The Sacred Space of Weakness

"Most people are too tired, too busy to have a meaningful spiritual life."

John Mark Comer

III. The Spiritual Discipline of Waiting

"To wait for the Lord means to live in confident, eager suspense. It means to live with the tension of promises revealed but not yet fulfilled...Waiting is what faith does before God's answer shows up. God gives us great and precious promises, and then he calls us to wait."

Raymond C. Ortlund, Jr., Isaiah,
