2 Timothy 1:6-7, 1:14, 3:5

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

-What are you currently feeding your soul, and what is one thing you could remove or replace this week so that God's Word is what comes out of you when you get pressed?

-Paul pointed to the soldier, the athlete, and the farmer. Which one do you most need to hear from right now: a call to undivided loyalty, to self-controlled endurance, or to patient perseverance when the seed seems buried? And what would it look like to respond to that today?

-Who is your Timothy, and who is your Paul? Who is someone younger in the faith you are pouring into, and who is pouring into you? If you can't name either, what is one step you can take this week to change that?
