

TRUST

PSALM 20:1-9 | IAN BLACK | OCTOBER 6, 2019

Trust is cultivated through worshipping God's name.

There's something about having a history of worship that cultivates trust.

Trust requires a heart change.

If you want to know what's in your heart, look at what you're asking for.

"We may have our own will, when our will is God's will." – Charles Spurgeon

Heart change allows us to trust the process, trust the timing, trust the decision, trust His provision.

Trust expands through shared history.

What's your shared history with the Lord? What can you look back on?

Good times don't tend to reveal where we're really putting our trust. That's what bad times do.

Sometimes we've been trusting in chariots and horses for a long time, and we didn't even know.
